

BC Coastal Challenge,
Inaugural RCFCBC IMAC Competition,

May 31—June 1, 2008, Pilot Meeting 09:00, Flying at 10:00,
Entry Fee: $25.00 All Levels, (First Time Basic Pilots Fly FREE !)
Pre-register on line at : www.imacnw.com for $20.00.

MAAC or AMA Membership Required
Flying 3 classes ONLY : Basic, Sportsman & Intermediate.
Sponsor Club: RCFCBC, Event Site: "RCFCBC Lando Field".

Address/Directions : Next Page.
Dry camping & toilets available. BBQ Lunch both days available.

Pilots meeting 9am both days. First time IMAC Pilots should attend our Judging, Flying, Rules Seminar May 10, 2008 for a better understanding of IMAC procedures.

Bruce Hanley (Washington) will also do a Quick review on Rules, Judging, Flying Saturday May 31 at 8am for any pilots that missed the Seminar.

Basic class can fly any plane as long as it can do a roll, loop and, stall turn. You don't need a 1/4 scale plane or larger. Come on out and give it a try in a very friendly environment.

Trophies awarded for 1st, 2nd & 3d place in all classes !

Check out our Website : www.rcfcbc.com

Event CD : Jerry Ruscheinski
Phone : 604 532 5810
Email : jr_lawnman@hotmail.com

Co CD : Peter Butschek
Phone : 604-888-2159
Email : Daddiekat@shaw.ca

Accommodation Suggestions For Travelers

Canada's Best Value Motel, Langley, "2 1/2 Star", 1-800-667-4557 ,
Super 8 Motel, Surrey, "3 Star", 604-581-7122 (breakfast & pool),
Hampton Inn & Suites, Langley, "4 Star", 1-866-530-6545 (breakfast, pool),
Note : Mention "RCFCBC" when booking to get a group rate.

USA Pilots take I-5 North to Exit 275 and go North on 543 to the Truck Border crossing. On the Canadian side you'll be on 176th Street. Go North on 176th to Fraser Hwy (about 4 miles). Turn left on Fraser Hwy and then another quick left (300 feet) to the "RCFCBC Lando Field" access road.

Please check our website for more travel directions : www.rcfcbc.com.

